ABOUT ME

Shaida Afrin is a Lecturer and Chairman (acting) in the Department of English at Habiganj Agricultural University. She holds an MA and BA (Hon's) in English Language and Literature, with a strong academic foundation in literary studies, linguistics, and cultural analysis. Her academic interests span literary criticism, sociolinguistics, and the intersection of literature with social and cultural perspectives. While she is deeply committed to exploring the richness of global literature and fostering cross-cultural understanding through the study of the English language and literature, she aims to contribute to the development of critical thinking, creativity, and a passion for lifelong learning in her students.
